In Técnico we have a comprehensive view of Technology Transfer that brings knowledge to the talents that put it into practice. TT@Técnico offers a wide range of opportunities to companies that want to join this vision.

Talents@Técnico

A program that promotes contact between companies and students from the best engineering school in Portugal. We have over 1.500 companies involved in these program activities.

Scholarships Programs

Several companies sponsor scholarships programs designed to prevent that money is not an obstacle to talent development.

Merit Awards

Merit awards are opportunities to distinguish the best from the best: the best dissertation, the best student in a course on a given subject, or the best student in a program.

Masters and PhD Scholarships

There is an increasing number of companies that offer scholarships for Master or PhD Thesis on topics of interest to them with the possibility of following the progression of the Students and Teachers.

Innovation Competitions and Awards

Innovation is part of the DNA of those who study and work at Técnico. Several companies benefit from this culture of innovation and entrepreneurship by offering prizes for innovation contests and challenges organized by Técnico.

Support for Learning Labs

Técnico has a wide area of learning spaces that serve as support to both the laboratory components of the curriculum and to the extracurricular activities of Students. The companies can support the improvement of these spaces, transmitting to the community the importance of practical training and the commitment to the continuous improvement of the quality of the graduates by Técnico.

Student Clubs and Organizations

Técnico currently has more than 50 student clubs and organizations, involved in technological projects, sports and cultural activities, among many others. The increasing number of companies that are associated with initiatives and projects of students is a sign of the importance they give to the skills that these activities develop.
